Research launch - Exploring the link between socio-economic background, job performance and career progression in Financial Services

Removing barriers to socio-economic diversity in financial services will ensure access to the best talent, safeguard UK competitiveness and boost organisational performance.

Find out how employers can improve socio economic diversity at the launch of landmark research, exploring the link between socio-economic background, job performance and career progression.

We hope to welcome a Government Minister, introduced by Catherine McGuinness, Policy Chair, City of London Corporation.

There will be a panel moderated by Nik Miller, CEO of the Bridge Group. Nik will be joined by speakers from the Bank of England, Blackrock, Financial Conduct Authority, First Sentier Investors, Legal and General Investment Management and Santander.

Please email david.bulafkin@cityoflondon.gov.uk to secure a place on the invitation list.

Please share the invitation with anyone you think may be interested in the event. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch.
